

Lledr Hall OEC

Steering Group

Background

Lledr Hall is Salford City Council's residential adventure activity Centre. It is located in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park. It offers a wide range of activities from ropes courses and canoeing on-site to climbing on local crags, exploring mines, riding bikes through the forests and scaling gorges with dramatic waterfalls. The highly experienced and talented staff team that have between them years of experience and all the qualifications in this specialised area of teaching are also all qualified teachers. It aims to provide high quality personal, social and environmental education through outdoor and residential experiences, allowing every individual to enjoy their time at the Centre and to go away with lots of fantastic memories that will stay with them for the rest of their lives. To date, the Centre has influenced and changed the lives of over 70,000 Salford children

Programmes are tailor made to meet the aims and objectives of each group ensuring the maximum benefit for each and every individual. Taking part in the well led and carefully managed adventurous activities promotes increased self-confidence, motivation and independence. On all activities, course participants work together with others, improving their inter-personal skills, to achieve success. This success demonstrates firsthand the benefits that come from working with others to achieve shared goals.

The centre regularly caters for groups of up to 36 individuals and up to 6 leaders however there is some scope for bigger groups.

At present most of the groups using the centre are from the City of Salford however, groups from further afield are welcomed. The Centre has a strong reputation in Salford schools, a fact reflected in the high number of repeat bookings.

Aims

The Steering Group's purpose will be to oversee the operational interface between the Council, users and the Centre by:

- Monitoring the quality of provision
- Advising the Centre on developments and opportunities within the authority
- Keeping up to date with achievements and developments at the Centre
- Maintaining an open channel of communication between stakeholders and the Head of Centre.

Board membership

The Group will consist of representatives from all aspects of educational provision, and representatives of Salford City Council. The role of the steering group is seen as significant by the Council and it is expected that members will act on behalf of all schools and educational provision / facilities within the city.

Proposed frequency / location

The Group will meet once each term at Salford Civic Centre.
